HOME OF THE KNIGHTS SINCE 1960

PE [Strength Conditioning Emphasis] & Humanities Teacher

Closing Date: Open Until Filled

St. Thomas More Collegiate, a progressive co-ed Blessed Edmund Rice Christian Brother Catholic Independent high school in Burnaby, B.C., is seeking a full-time Physical Education (Strength and Conditioning emphasis) and Humanities teacher to guide and provide the vision and expertise that will allow us to continue a first-rate program.

The successful candidate will be an experienced, flexible, technologically proficient, dynamic, collaborative, and inspirational educator who is looking to become a part of a vibrant teaching and learning community. This highly motivated individual will be expected to contribute professionally and be a lead teacher those areas indicated. Additionally the successful candidate will also need to be prepared to teach in areas outside of those indicated for one or two blocks (yet to be determined, possibly English or Social Studies).

The successful candidate will actively engage in planning, implementing and assessing student learning. Applicants must be confident in curriculum development and demonstrate an approach to teaching that is reflective of the way in which 21st Century students learn. Potential candidates must be a member, or be in the process of becoming a member, of the British Columbia College of Teachers. The school also looks favourably upon those candidates that are willing to contribute to the co-curricular life of the school.

Applications and Other Documents:

The successful candidate must hold valid NSCA certification, teaching degree and is certified with the Teacher Regulation Branch. Letters of application, accompanied by a resume, and the names of two referees, should be received by the school at the applicant's earliest convenience.

***Only those selected for interviews will be contacted*****
